Our Pastor's Message

Dear Graduates of the Class of 1963:

Commencement means the beginning of a new phase of life for you apart from the sheltering influences of parents, priests, and teachers. It marks the beginning of a certain new freedom but one that is fraught with many dangers.

You will be free to choose and to make your own decisions; you will not, however, be free to do whatever you please, regardless of consequences. Your choice may be one of life and death, even of eternal life and death.

When difficult decisions and problems face you, seek first the advice of your parents and your priests. And let their years of experience be your guiding force.

Choose carefully your friends! Pray that your vocation in life will truly be the answer to God's calling. Let not fame, or fortune, or comfortable living be your life's ambition, but may your true Catholic Faith give you the proper motives and reasons for your every action.

Be ever grateful to your parents and teachers for all they have done for you over the years. Live your Faith! Stay close to God! And may He bless you and keep you always in His loving care!

Sincere congratulations and every best wish!

School Personnel

At the beginning of this school year, a library assistance program was inaugurated. Pictured above are (l. to r.): Mrs. John Kelley, Mrs. Harold Hirschman, Mrs. Mary Martella. SEATED: Mrs. Patrick Borrelli.

Dedication

We, the Seniors of 1963, gratefully dedicate this Herald to Sister M. Alois without whose untiring devotion and sacrifice of time and energy the publication of this yearbook would not be possible. Her friendship and assistance toward our class during all our high school years has been one of our most valued blessings. We thank you again, Sister, for your fine work. May God bless you in all your endeavors. We have one parting request - please remember us in your prayers as we promise to remember you in ours.

Our Theme ~ Beauty

"God's majesty speaks to us by the works of His almighty hands."

Beauty can be found all around us and in all our activities. How true it is that, "Beauty is in the eyes of the beholder"! Yes, we have discovered various forms of beauty even in our short span of years. Spiritual, intellectual, social and physical beauty have all made their impressions on us.

In the spiritual realm, beauty is akin to purity. Surely this inner beauty transforms even the exterior, shining radiantly through deeds of unselfish love and voluntary self-sacrifice. With God as the center of our lives, even our ordinary daily actions assume a beauty because they are done for Him, the Supreme Beauty.

Beauty of intellect is an inquiring mind absorbing knowledge and truth. We have been blessed with and are truly grateful for another kind of beauty of mind - that of our dedicated teachers, instilling God's truths into our searching intellects.

Our social lives and contacts with others from various walks of life teach us still another kind of beauty. How lovely it is to have the social graces which mark the true lady and gentleman! These courtesies have become a part of us as we awakened to the realization that they are "charity in little things."

We have found beauty in the physical order, too. Preserving our health and developing our bodies is a concrete form of beauty because it is according to God's will in our regard.

As Jane Porter once said, "Beauty of form affects the mind, but then it must not be the mere shell that we admire, but the thought that this shell is only the beautiful case adjusted to the shape and value of a still more beautiful pearl within. The perfection of outward loveliness is the soul shining through its crystalline covering."

The Beautiful Hands of a Priest

We need them in life's early morning,
We need them again at it's close.

We feel their warm clasp of true friendship,
We seek them when tasting life's woes.

When we come to this world we are sinful,
The greatest as well as the least,

And the hand that makes us pure as angels
Is the beautiful hand of a priest.

At the altar each day we behold them
And the hands of a king on his throne

Are not equal to them in their greatness,
Their dignity stands all alone;

For there in the stillness of morning
Ere the sun has emerged from the East,

There, God rests between the pure fingers
Of the beautiful hands of a priest.

And when we are tempted and wander
To pathways of shame and of sin,

'Tis the hand of a priest will absolve us -
Not once, but again and again.

And when we are taking life's partner,
Other hands may prepare us a feast,

But the hand that will bless and unite us
Is the beautiful hand of a priest.

God bless them and keep them all holy
For the Host which their fingers caress.

What can a poor sinner do better
Than to ask Him Who choose thee to bless?

When the death-dews on our eyelids are falling
May our courage and strength be increased

By seeing raised o'er us in blessing
The beautiful hand of a priest!

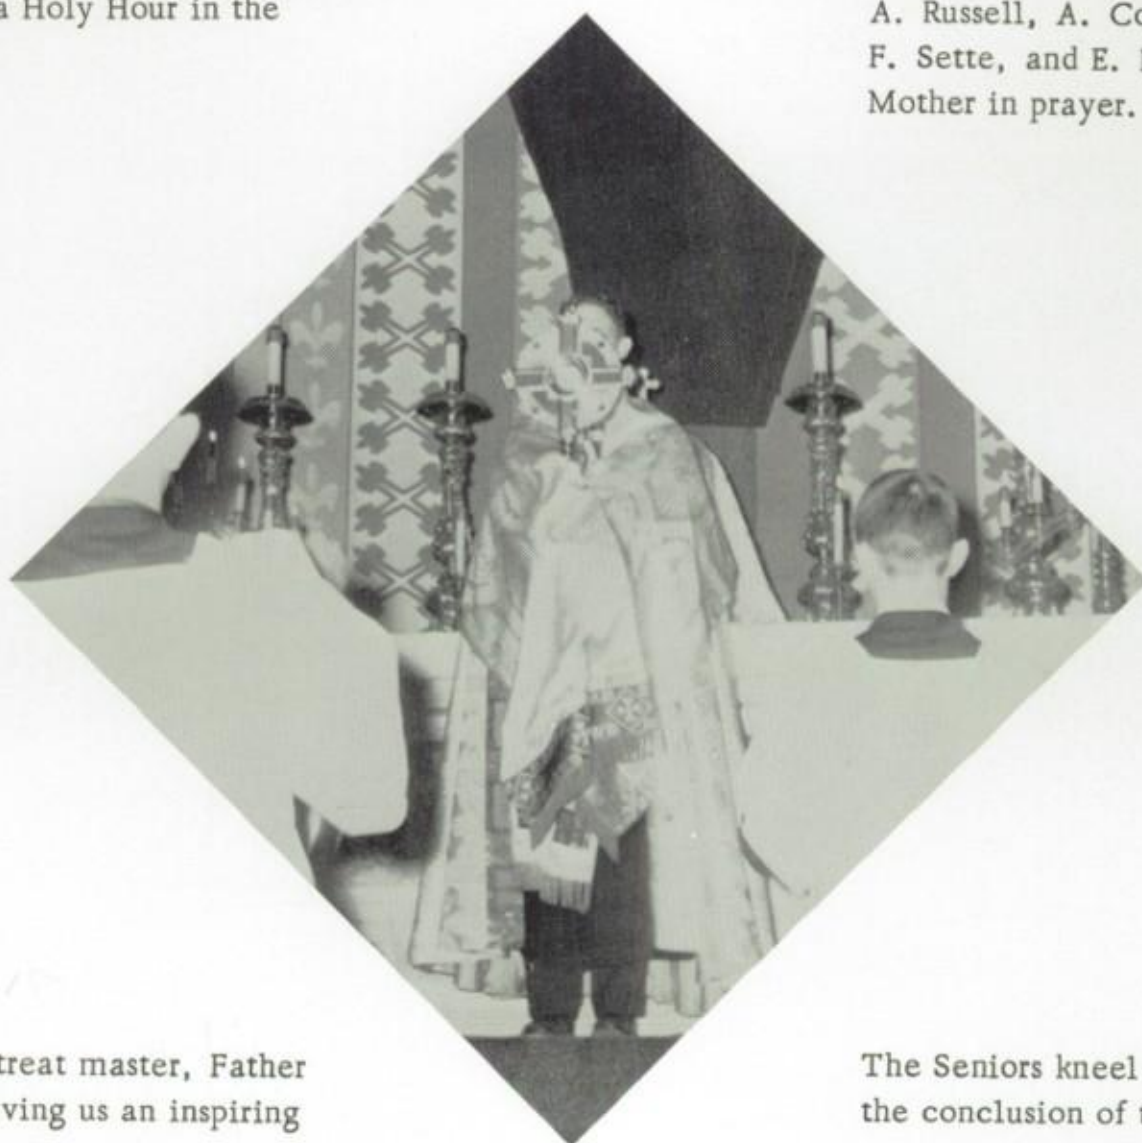

The Senior girls spend a Holy Hour in the Sisters' Chapel.
